

The Journal Vertentes do Direito, from the Law course of the Federal University of Tocantins, is extremely pleased to present its 11th Edition in 2019, vol. 6, n. 01. Each year, edition and volume, it is necessary to thank the effort and commitment of several actors that make Vertentes do Direito build its path with commitment and seriousness in the diffusion of legal scientific knowledge from the interdisciplinary perspective in the North Region of Brazil, maintaining its commitment to the construction of an open and receptive space for the submission, analysis and publication of scientific papers prepared by undergraduates and postgraduates in partnership with their guiding teachers.

The journey is just beginning. Since our first edition, in 2014, we have been in existence for 5 years, a lot has already been achieved: The enlargement of the review team of the Journal, the construction of an integrated vision between quality and celerity in the analysis of articles and consequent issuance of opinions, compliance with the exogenia indexes with the objective of raising a better stratification of Journal Vertentes do Direito before CAPES in future evaluations.

However, always aware and committed to the State of Tocantins, because the idealization and construction of the Journal was based and strengthens itself in the proposal to be an instrument to promote and propagate quality scientific works produced in the state, which motivates and drives us to overcome the challenges of this journey every day.

The commitment of the Vertentes do Direito to excellence as a journal presents itself with its indexation in databases, national and international repositories. The Journal Vertentes do Direito has as current links: ABEC – Associação Brasileira de Editores Científicos, DOAJ, REDIB, LATINDEX, DIADORIM, SUMÁRIOS.ORG, LIVRE, OpenAIRE, GOOGLE SCHOOL.

At the beginning of this year, the Journal was included in the PORTAL DE PERIÓDICOS DA CAPES, making it available for consultation through the tab "Buscar periódico". The Portal de Periódicos da CAPES system uses a central database and several institutions around the world can access and use the available information, offering greater visibility to national journals, considering that the records entered by the CAPES' portal staff can be viewed by institutions all around the world.

In this issue, scientific articles are published by researchers from the United States of America (USA), as well as from several Brazilian states, such as Amazonas, Ceará, São Paulo, Goiás, Bahia, Tocantins, Piauí, Santa Catarina e Mato Grosso.

The committee of referees have approved for this edition a set of 15 articles, which reaffirm the commitment of Vertentes do Direito to diversity and interdisciplinarity. It is important to emphasize that the articles of Vertentes do Direito have DOI (Digital Object Identifier).
